Courage without prudence gets in the way of danger. Prudence with courage outflanks danger and gets the best of it.

Two hearts with but a single thought, Two hearts that beat as one; The man fools 'round till he gets caught. And she's the one that's won.

A writer says: "After all, men make their living with their hands." No, not all. The tongue work of the politician seems to beat the hand-made living all to pieces.

A man out in Western North Carolina bought a whole female seminary for $5,000. That was real cheap if a whole bunch of pretty girls are to be embraced in the transaction.

Says the Houston Chronicle: "When you are tempted to shoot Niagara, row up stream." We never miss the target from a safe place on the shore, for whenever we shoot, Niagara falls.

"We must teach the girls more about figures," says a college professor. You are simply butting in to bring on more trouble. Their calculations are sufficient now to add a son-in-law to their father's family.

Since 1860, the Democratic party has not won in our Presidential elections but twice. We had better look up the two platforms on which we won and ascertain what it was in them that caught the attention of the people.

Editor M. A. Lowry, of the Mt. Airy News, has sold out his paper and job office to Editor J. E. Johnson, lately of the Elkin Times. Mr. Lowry has been in the newspaper business many years and has given Mt. Airy a clean home paper. We wish Brother Johnson the fullest measure of success in his new field.

Says the Concord Tribune: "A North Carolina preacher named Dunnaway married a "runaway" couple the other day, but there is nothing in a name." Go on away from here with your foolishness! You are just trying to get us to say that the runaway bride has Dunnaway with her name. We hope that it will never be said of this couple that they have done away with the knot that Dunnaway tied.

A writer asks derisively: "What becomes of all those awfully smart children?" The smart girls grow up sweet and pretty, and cutely scoop us in with their matrimonial nets. The smart boys grow up shrewd and sell us gold bricks in various forms, get our small change by working a ball under a shell, or knock on the back door and are fed by the smart girl wives which scooped us in with their little nets. This is no joke.

NEGRO SLAPPED A CHILD.

Restaurant Employe in Court for Aggravated Offence Was Fined Heavily.

Frank Davis, a middle-aged colored man, who says he is employed at Ennett's restaurant near Front and Dock streets, was arraigned in Justice Fowler's court yesterday, charged with the aggravated offence of slapping the little four-year-old son of Mrs. Minnie King. The negro was given choice of paying $10 fine and costs, aggregating $14.35, or going to the roads for 30 days.

The evidence showed that the child was playing on the sidewalk about noon, when the negro passed with a bucket of water, going to the restaurant. The boy innocently poked his finger in the bucket and the negro slapped him on the cheek several times. The child ran home screaming. Mr. C. T. Croom, an uncle of the tot, upon learning what was the matter with the child, immediately went out and visited summary punishment upon Davis. Mr. Croom was before Justice Fowler upon a charge of an assault, but in view of the great provocation he was discharged.

A GREAT CONVENTION

Democrats of North Carolina Will Assemble in Greensboro This Week.

STEDMAN MEN CONFIDENT.

He Will Have Plurality on First Ballot and His Nomination Will Come on Second or Third, They Say. Manager Brooks' Demeanor.

[Special Star Telegram.]

GREENSBORO, N. C., June 18.—"Greensboro will do its best by the Democratic State Convention next week," said a member of the committee of arrangements to-night when asked about plans for entertaining the convention. "We are going to lay ourselves out to make it the best entertained convention in North Carolina. Nothing will be overlooked that will contribute to the comfort and happiness of the delegates. The convention will meet in the Banner Warehouse; there will be electric fans, ceiling and desk fans sufficient in number to cool the atmosphere. Iced lemonade and mineral water and cigars will be provided in abundance. There will be numerous pages to attend to the wants of the delegates. Bands of music will be provided."

But while Greensboro is planning large things in the way of entertaining the convention, it is losing none of its interest in the candidacy of Major Stedman. It is believed here by the conservatives that he will have a plurality on the first ballot and that on the second or third he will be nominated. His friends, and this means everybody here, are confident that he will be the next governor.

Under the heading "Stedman and the Outlook," the Greensboro Record of yesterday prints the following:

"No one hereabouts can be found who has any doubts about the ultimate triumph of Major Stedman in his candidacy for the office of governor of North Carolina, but if any one could be found and could be induced to visit his headquarters in the Guilford, another song would be sung. Mr. A. L. Brooks has quit pulling his moustache—a sure sign of deep thought—and wears a broad smile all the while. He has kept fully informed of every move made and is confident. Of course the work has been practically done so far as the canvass is concerned, but what gives Major Stedman's friends joy is the receipt by every mail of letters from all parts of the State. Many of these tell of conditions favorable to Major Stedman, of which Mr. Brooks had no idea. A summing up of the situation on the eve of a battle shows a loyal legion behind Guilford's man, composed of men who have fought many a political battle and have never faltered and seldom miscalculated their own strength or that of the other side. They will stand as a solid wall, fighting shoulder to shoulder to the last ditch—in other words, the old guard is behind Major Stedman, men who know the justice of their cause and who know from experience that right will prevail.

"The outlook for Guilford's candidate is bright, and what is more interesting it grows brighter by the receipt of letters in every mail wholly unexpected."

RED MEN'S EXCURSION TUESDAY.

Great War Dance at Carolina Beach. Music and Other Features.

Hundreds of people, both grown-ups and little folks, are anticipating a day of great festivity at Carolina Beach Tuesday upon the occasion of the Red Men's excursion to be given for the benefit of the Haymakers' degree of that popular order. The event will be fraught with pleasure galore and the "Big Injuns" of Wilmington intend to make it a grand artistic triumph. The programme of amusements is a most varied and elaborate one and includes sports of the merriest nature. In the front rank will be found a blood-curdling war-dance, which is scheduled to take place at 4 o'clock in the afternoon and which will present a score or more of the lively warriors in the fierce-appearing but picturesque Indian costumes. At 4:30 o'clock an exciting foot race will take place and among the braves who will display their fleetness of foot will be Silly Willie, Crooked Ear Pete, Full Moon Tom, Half Drunk Moon Phil, Tremendous Horn Josiah, Little Cornet Johnnie and Insignificant Base Drum Frankie.

The steamer "Wilmington" will make four trips to the beach, the last returning at 10:30 o'clock at night.

Amusement at Carolina Beach.

The managers of the Carolina Beach Amusement Company have added a new feature to its many attractions of the season. At the company's club house, a punching bag, boxing gloves, bowling alleys, and all sorts of training apparatus can be had for the benefit of those confined long hours in offices and various other confining positions, who really need exercise to sustain health and happiness. This will no doubt be greatly appreciated by those who are familiar with the benefits derived by such and the success of the company's energetic endeavor to give the public of Wilmington what it needs is assured. Free swings have been erected for ladies and children. The shooting gallery is in constant use and will be the scene of many contests with both rifle and revolver. In all, this season promises well to eclipse all previous seasons at this favorite resort.

Mr. J. H. Rehder has just returned from the Northern markets; while there he purchased thousands of dollars worth of new seasonable goods. In a short time they will be sold at phenomenal low prices Watch for the date of the Big Sale. †

BURNING OF THE HIGHLANDER.

Steamer a Total Wreck—Columbians Will Buy Another at Once.

The only particulars obtainable yesterday, about the burning of the steamer "Highlander" came in a special to The State from its Georgetown correspondent and is printed in that paper as follows:

"The steamer 'Highlander' was destroyed by fire on the Santee river this afternoon at or near Fawn Hill, about 25 miles by water from Georgetown. The captain and crew arrived here at night by private conveyance too late to telegraph the news. They report the steamer a total wreck. Nothing was saved.

"The fire originated from a spark catching the lightwood on deck and the efforts of the crew to extinguish the flames proving unavailing, the boat was run ashore and the crew gotten ashore safely."

The State says that at a special meeting of the Columbia Chamber of Commerce Friday the river navigation committee of that body at once took steps to replace the burned boat with another of equal carrying capacity. Manager T. D. Love, of Wilmington, will probably own and operate the new boat. It is stated that the business on the new line had grown by leaps and bounds within the past few weeks and that three or four boats could be operated to Georgetown at a profit. There is a pile of freight at Georgetown now awaiting shipment to Columbia.

Fine Exhibitions of the National Sport by Amateur Teams of Wilmington Yesterday.

C. F. A. DEFEATED THE W. L. I.

Results in Juvenile Baseball League and Standing of the Clubs—Coast Line Office Team Victorious Over Delgado—Other Results.

In one of the prettiest exhibitions of baseball seen here this season, the Cape Fear Academy team defeated that of the Wilmington Light Infantry at Hilton yesterday afternoon by a score of two to one. Only five hits were made during the entire game and a shut out for the W. L. I. team seemed inevitable until the last inning, when one man was sent across the pan to the music of a defeaning shriek from the soldier rooters on the bleachers. Wilson, for the Infantry team, and Peschau, for the Academy boys, were on the slab and each did remarkably fine work. Peschau struck out five men and allowed but one base on balls. Wilson retired six by the atmosphere route but gave three passes. The C. F. A. made two hits and one error; the W. L. I. three hits and two errors. The line-up was as follows:

C. F. A.		W. L. I.
Moore, L.	c.	Nash
Peschau	p.	Wilson
Orrell, L.	1b.	Moore, E.

Robinson struck out 14 men and Miniz 10. The A. C. L. made eight hits and Delgado eleven. Mr. W. N. Freeman umpired the game.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

SUNDAY MORNING, JUNE 19.

THE TWO NATIONAL CONVENTIONS.

The Republican national convention will assemble at Chicago next Tuesday. On next Wednesday two weeks the Democratic national convention will meet at St. Louis. What the Republican convention will do is pretty well known, but of the two conventions more interest centres in the one to be held at St. Louis. There are so many elements of interest in the action of the Democratic convention that it is not necessary to recount them. The country may as well be prepared, however, to see Col. William Jennings Bryan diplomatically called down, if he will let the convention be that easy with him, but simply run out on the side track if nothing will do but that. Of the two conventions the Philadelphia Record says:

As the time for the two great national conventions approaches the differences in their conditions are already so striking as to arrest the attention of all observers. The Republican delegates will quietly assemble in Chicago to proclaim a programme that has been carefully pre-arranged for them in all respects. There will be no concern about candidates or platform. The only matters not regulated that will occupy the Chicago Convention are the conflicting delegations from Wisconsin and Delaware. Once more the Addicks faction, having won a preliminary victory, will insist upon the exclusion of Regular Republicans from the convention and upon the retention of Addicks as a member of the National Committee. In Wisconsin the conflict between the rival Spooner and LaFollette factions has become so embittered as to threaten the loss of the State's electoral votes and of a seat in the United States Senate.

In the Democratic National Convention the action will depend on the mature deliberation of the delegates as to the best interests of the party and the country. There will be no carefully studied addresses, and the speeches will be all the better for being spontaneous. It may be confidently predicted thus early that the platform will express the sentiments of the conservative Democracy on all questions of national policy. While there is no absolute certainty as yet upon whom the choice of the convention for President will fall, it is certain that William J. Bryan will dictate neither the party policy or the candidate.

It is true that the candidacy of Judge Alton B. Parker is gaining in strength day by day. The instructions of Mississippi and Arkansas on Wednesday show that so far from causing discouragement or doubt, the opposition has only strengthened the sentiment of the Democracy as to his superior availability.

THE GOOSE THAT LAYS THE GOLDEN EGG.

Millionaire captains of industry must be an awfully greedy and avaricious lot to keep on demanding protection. The venal Republican party, subservient to and pampered by the crowd that wants the earth, gives them all the protection they want. A tariff is passed, the masses foot the bill, and yet they manifest a desire to continue to be bled by perpetuating the Republican party in power.

Under the policy of the monstrous Republican party that takes from all the people for the benefit of a few of the people, there is no wonder that the few amass millions as slick as grease while the toiling masses can barely meet expenses after a whole year's hard labor.

Astonishment is expressed that some men can make money so easily while the astonished ones work hard to come out even. The secret is to get under the protection wing of the Republican party that takes away from him who has little and adds to him who has much. This is what we call fleecing the people, and indeed it looks like they would get tired of furnishing the fleece for the fleecers.

Roosevelt and his accomplices blow about their going to "stand pat." The goose that lays the golden egg ought to know enough to refuse to be patted any longer.

READ THE HANDWRITING.

Of course the Parker boom is going right along. He will be nominated, but will North Carolina know enough to "instruct" and be classed with the originals?

Well, there ought to be enough handwriting on the wall by this time to enable the Democratic State convention to read what is going to happen at St. Louis on the 6th of July. The State convention meets at Greensboro next Thursday. The delegates know that the people want Parker nominated, and the convention ought to adopt Parker resolutions that will be so unequivocable that the delegates can't run amuck and flop about at St. Louis.

The Concord Tribune has set aside a column to be devoted to the interest of the schools of Cabarrus county. That is a good idea, for nothing like publicity will so build up the schools and encourage the teachers in their work. Good pay and good teachers ought, however, to be a part of the "campaign of education."

CURRENT COMMENT.

— The resolution adopted yesterday by the Confederate veterans at Nashille, frvoring the establishment at Richmond of a Home for needy Confederate women, was an initiative worthy of an early consummation.—Norfolk Public Ledger.

— There is some talk of Judge Parker going to St. Louis to be present during the period of the Democratic national convention, but nothing is more unlikely. After declining for months to give the least indication of a candidacy for the nomination, he will scarcely make an open bid for it at the round up.—Charleston Post.

— The Republican National convention will be a very tame affair. The President has decided who shall be the nominees, what the platform shall contain, who the chairman shall be and all the rest of the business an ordinarily independent convention usually transacts.—Columbia Record.

The burnished plumage of the peacock owes its brilliancy and splendor to a healthful condition. Let the bird be sickly, and the plumage droops and grows dull. There is no exception in nature to the rule that beauty depends on health.

Women who see their beauty waning rarely associate the external change with failure of the womanly health. They do not understand the close relation of the general physical health to the health of the delicate womanly organism, until after being cured of womanly diseases by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription they find the color returning to the cheek and the flesh to the body.

"Favorite Prescription" establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"Several years ago I was very poorly," writes Mrs. May Kelley, of Sylvia, Kans., "so weak I could hardly walk across the floor, and at times suffered severely. I took two bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and got well and hardy—gained twelve pounds in two months and was the picture of health. Your medicines have cured me. Almost everybody I meet says, 'You look so much better than you have for several years; you look well now.'"

"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are a lady's laxative. Nothing equals them for gentleness and thoroughness.

A Swinburne Story.

Algernon Charles Swinburne, the poet, tells how when a schoolboy at Eton he found himself once in the same railway carriage with the head master, Dr. Goodford, who was grimly reading a newspaper. Mr. Swinburne's father, who did not know the peculiar shrinking of august head masters from strange parents, interfered with the reading by asking Dr. Goodford's opinion of Algernon Charles. "Now," continues Mr. Swinburne, "as a matter of fact Dr. Goodford had never set eyes on me and probably did not even know of my existence; but, enraged, I suppose, at my father's rather unconventional interruption, which he no doubt considered a slight on his dignity, he glanced down at me with a scarlet face and said deliberately, 'Your boy, sir—your boy is one of the very worst in school!' and then intrenched himself once more behind his newspaper." It was no use for Algernon Charles to protest that Dr. Goodford did not even know him by sight. "Do you think," retorted Swinburne senior, "that I am going to take your word before that of your head master?" So there were no junketings for Swinburne junior in the Christmas holidays.

Parnell's Eyes.

"Anent your allusion to the color of Parnell's eyes," writes a lady correspondent, "many years ago a young girl passed a man on the staircase of the Railway hotel, Westport, Ireland. There was tragedy written all over him. So uncommon were the man's eyes that they made clear to the girl a phrase in Shakespeare she had never before understood, 'Eyes like carbuncles.' The girl joined her friends and said, 'I have seen a man with eyes the color of a solid mounted carbuncle.' The late Captain Boycott, who was one of the party, said, 'Then you have seen Parnell, for he is the only man I know with eyes that answer to that, and it is not likely to be he, for if he were in this neighborhood he would be at Newport House.' The party traveled to Dublin by the evening's mail train. At Mullingar Parnell got into the same carriage and sat opposite the writer, who wrote on the margin of the paper she was reading, 'The man I saw in the hotel,' and passed it to Captain Boycott, who returned it with the added words, 'It is Parnell.'"—London M. A. P.

A Welsh Legend.

In Wales there is a legend of Irish smugglers who arrived at Llanddona many years ago in a boat without rudder or oars. They were looked upon, according to the Irish custom of sending malefactors to a sea doom in this plight, as outlaws. However, they had been allowed to land, and a spring of water bursting forth in the sand at the place was taken as a sign of their right to a refuge. But they ill repaid the Welsh. The men lived by smuggling, the women by witchcraft. It was not possible to overcome the smugglers in a fray, for each carried about with him a black fly tied in a knot of his kerchief, and the moment the knot was undone the fly flew at the eyes of the opponents and blinded them. If the Llanddona witches attended a market and bid for anything no one ventured to bid against them.

How to Wrap Up Christmas Gifts.

A dainty gift deserves dainty covering. The foremost idea in a gift bestower's mind is to please its recipient, and as first impressions are always the most lasting the manner in which the remembrance is got up oftentimes goes a long way in the pleasure of it. A quantity of pure white wrapping paper can be bought for a small sum, and with one or two pieces of baby ribbon in white, light blue, pink or green, which can be had as low as 10 cents apiece, each containing ten yards, you can do up a multitude of your Christmas offerings in a way that will be delightful, says the Philadelphia Record. A more elaborate idea, new this year, is to tie them up in cracker bonbon style in crape tissue paper and ribbon. This costs a little more than the first way named, but is very effective, and the cost can be reduced by craping the paper yourself and tying with baby ribbon instead of the wider one.

How to Make Fruit Cake.

Mix two tablespoonfuls of baking powder with one and a half pounds of flour; to this add one-half pound mixed candied peel, sliced; five pounds of currants, two pounds of cut raisins, one-fourth pound of almonds, chopped fine; one dessertspoonful of mace and one-half teaspoonful of salt. In another dish rub one and a half pounds of butter and an equal weight of sugar to a cream, add twelve eggs, slightly beaten, and one and a half tumblers of wine and brandy mixed. Into this second mixture stir the mixture of dry ingredients, dropping it in a handful at a time and mixing constantly with the other hand; add enough sour milk to make a batter of the consistency usually required in a fruit cake and flavor with lemon or any flavoring liked.

Don't miss the biggest and best of all excursions. Thos. R. Knight will run the next of his big excursions to Fayetteville on Tuesday, June 28th, via the fast and famous Atlantic Coast Line, where an unparalleled opportunity will be offered to every one to visit this splendid city of generous hospitality and good cheer at the remarkably low rate of $1 for the round trip. Knight's excursions are very popular and are patronized by the best people. If you would spend a day of pleasure go on this big, cheap excursion and you will never regret it. Train leaves depot at 7:30 A. M.; returning, will leave Fayetteville at 12 o'clock midnight. †

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

NEW YORK, June 18.—The cotton market opened firm at an advance of five to twenty-three points on the old crop and of three to ten points on the new crop positions, or fully as high as warranted by the firmer Liverpool cables. Weather conditions remained nearly perfect and following the call the market ruled rather particularly as to the old crop months, which came in for a renewal of liquidation and pressure from leading room operators. The market, however, held fairly steady on moderate covering for over Sunday, notwithstanding the favorable character of the weather forecast. Business was very quiet and after breaking to about 10.95 for July and 10.58 for August the market showed little tendency either way, new crop positions heading near the opening figures.

CHARACTER.

Drug stores have "character." This one has a very high character for "reliability." That is the chief end we have worked for.

Prescriptions are entrusted to us in such great numbers, no doubt, because of the character which our store enjoys among doctors and the public.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

— The Statesville Cotton Mills has declared its usual semi-annual dividend of 4 per cent.

— Messrs. S. J. Smitherman and J. P. Baldwin are constructing a tannery at Troy, Montgomery county.

— The Fulton Manufacturing Company, Mount Airy, has been chartered to manufacture lumber, furniture and tobacco boxes.

—The Lenoir Woodworking Company has been chartered with $20,000 capital, to manufacture furniture and building material.

— The Blanche Hosiery Mill, at Chapel Hill has added 20 knitting machines to its plant. It already operated twenty machines.

— The Eno Cotton Mills, at Hillsboro, has given an order for 300 additional tons and is erroting an additional building to be used as a dye house.

— Durham Herald: What puzzles us is how the Atlantic and North Carolina railroad managed to maintain a lobby at Raleigh and the city papers did not find it out.

— The capital stock of the Farmers' Cotton Oil Company of Wilson has been increased from $23,500 to $47,000, and will operate a fertilizer factory in connection with its oil mill and ginnery.

— The Standard Mirror Company, of Pittsburg, Pa., will remove its manufactory to High Point, one of North Carolina's progressive furniture manufacturing towns. The company is now erecting a factory building 48 by 200 feet.

— Monroe Enquirer: On general principles the deportation of miners from Colorado as wrong. If a man has violated law, punish him where he commits his crime, but do not send him off to some other place. We fraquently hear sentences in court rooms which amount to banishment of the criminal. A sentence which forces the criminal to leave the town, county or State should never be imposed.

— the North Carolina delegation to the Republican national convention left Raleigh Saturday afternoon for Chicago in a special Pullman car over the Southern Railway. Postmaster C. T. Bailey and United States District Attorney Harry Skinner were in the party. All the delegates from eastern Carolina went to Raleigh as their starting point. Two negro delegates go from North Carolina. It is said that there will be 70 negro delegates from different Southern States.

— At their reunion at Nashville yesterday a resolution of the Confederate veterans to modernize the famous Southern song, "Dixie," was fought by Gen. Cabell, of Texas, who contends for old Dixie or no Dixie. As a matter of fact Dixie is a nonsensical jumble of words set to a superb tune, but it is not to be expected that the old veterans will ever consent to have a line of it changed, and they ought to have their way about it.

—Fayetteville Observer: Our Congressman has just been notified by the Postoffice Department that his requests in regard to fifteen additional R. F. D. routes for this district have been complied with. The new routes inclue one from Hope Mills and one from Raeford, in this county. Few congressmen have ever had such a large number of the routes giuen to this district at one time. Mr. Patterson has made requests for about 35 more routes, covering every county in the district, and these will soon be acted on.

— A revival is in progress at the Baptist church in Spencer, the preaching being done by Rev. J. M. Stanford, of Yadkin county. A singular fact is that Mr. Stanford is a brother of the Rev. A. L. Stanford, pastor of the Methodist church at Leakeville, N. C., and teat he has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Baptist church in the same place, bringing about the unusual condition of two brothers, who are very much alike in personal appearance and mannerisms, serving as pastors of different denominations in the same town.

— Charlotte Chronicle: The Chronicle's local columns yesterday carried the news that another apartment house is to be built in Charlotte. From the number of residences built and owned by people in Charlotte—more than in any other town of similar size in the country, probably—one might think that everybody here was supplied with a home, but the real estate men tell a different story. The department house idea has come to be very popular, and the demand for apartments and flats is increasing constantly.

— At Raleigh, on Thursday, Gov. Aycock commuted to life imprisonment the death sentence of Albert Powell, the Durham negro accused of criminally assaulting his own daughter. The petition to the Governor was signed by Judge Chas. M. Cooke, who tried the case, the county commissioners, and many good citizens of Durham. It is said that since the trial some new evidence has been procured which shows a conspiracy on the part of Powell's family to get rid of him. He was to have been hanged on June 30. His record is a criminal one and had much to do with the conviction. It is reported that when the death sentence was pronounced, Powell's daughter laughed and joked about it with negroes sitting near her.

Startling Evidence.

Fresh testimony in great quantity is constantly coming in, declaring Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds to be unequalled. A recent expression from T. J. McFarland, of Benterville, Va., serves as example. He writes: "I had bronchitis for three years, and doctored all the time without being benefitted. Then I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and a few bottles wholly cured me." Equally effective in curing all Lung and Throat troubles, Consumption, Pneumonia and Grip. Guaranteed by R. R. BELLAMY, druggist. Trial bottles free; regular sizes 50c and $1.00.

Dr. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION FOR WEAK WOMEN.

— Miss Jessie Gregory, a cultured and accomplished young lady of Halifax, N. C., has been left a fortune by a Miss Miles, of Philadelphia, estimated to be between $130,000 and $150,000. Miss Gregory, in company with her aunt, Miss Elizabeth Clark, several years ago took a trip to the Old World and in Paris met Miss Miles. A friendship sprang up between the two, which lasted up to the death of Miss Miles. The result is the bequest which leaves Miss Gregory all of Miss Miles' fortune with the exception of $50,000 left to charity and property bringing in an annual income of from $3,000 to $4,000 to an only brother of the deceased.

— Charlotte Observer: The cigarette-smoker would do well to take warning while there is yet time for him to quit—while there is yet ground for him to stand upon. Evidences multiply that he is presently to be shut out of the ordinary avenues of business, the latest coming from Rock Hill, S. C., where the directors of the Union National Bank have adopted a resolution that no person who smokes cigarettes can find employment in that institution. Better quit, young man, or you will find soon that nobody wants you.

— Newton Enterprise, June 17th: Down in Texas they are already picking, ginning and selling new cotton. If the boll weevil don't wake up, the cotton bears will devour the Southern farmers. Think of picking cotton off the same stalks from June till November! Up this way the squares are barely coming in sight.

Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last! Such was the experience Mrs. S. H. Newsom, of Decatur, Ala. "For three years," she writes, "I endured insufferable pain from indigestion, stomach and bowel trouble. Death seemed inevitable when doctors and all remedies failed. At length I was induced to try Electric Bitters, and the result was miraculous. I improved at once, and now I'm completely recovered." For Liver, Kidneys, Stomach and Bowel troubles Electric Bitters is the only medicine. Only 50c. It's guaranteed by R. R. BELLAMY, druggist.

SOFTNESS OF SEALSKIN.

Is Rivaled by Human Hair Where Dandruff is Eradicated.

Sealskin is admired the world over for its softness and glossiness; and yet the human hair is equally as soft and glossy when healthy; and the radical cause of all hair trouble is dandruff, which is caused by a pestiferous parasite that saps the vitality of the hair at its root. Newbro's Herpicide is the only preparation that is fatal to the dandruff germ. Without dandruff there is no falling hair, but a luxuriant growth of glossy, soft hair is certain. Scouring the scalp won't cure dandruff. Kill the dandruff germ. Thousands of women owe their beautiful suits of hair to Newbro's Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. SUNDAY MORNING, JUNE 19.

PERDICARIS AND VARLEY.

Arrangements Made for Release of the Captives and Payment to the Bandits of the Ransom Money.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, June 18.—A cablegram received at the State Department from Consul General Gummere, at Tangier, in confirming the press report that the Sultan has agreed to all of Raisuli's terms, adds that the money ransom, $55,000, was to be paid over to-day. Mr. Gummere expressed grave doubt as to the advisability of making this payment before Perdicaris and Varley were actually released and safely returned to Tangier.

In his cablegram, the consul general states that Raisuli's negotiator returned to Tangier last night and reported that the terms had been accepted and the money as well as the prisoners must be immediately turned over to Raisuli at Taradant, where he is now located, and the captives will be released.

Mr. Gummere and the British minister both objected to this plan, on the ground that they placed everything in Raisuli's hands and they had no assurances that he would carry out his engagement after he got hold of the money. Therefore they had sent a special courier to Raisuli, suggesting that the exchange be effected through the sheriff of Wazan who has a powerful influence over Raisuli. The answer is expected to-morrow.

LONG ISLAND RACES.

The $20,000 Tidal Stakes Captured by Ort Wells, Beating the Favorite.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, June 18.—Amid the rousing cheers of 35,000 persons, John A. Drake's Ort Wells easily captured the $20,000 tidal stakes at Sheepshead Bay to day. Hildebrand had the mount on the Drake horse and handled him in perfect style. James R. Keene's Delhi, the favorite in the betting, finished second. The time, 2:06, is a new record for the stake.

Odom sent Delhi to the front at the lifting of the barrier, followed by Ort Wells and St. Valentine. In the run down the back stretch, Delhi was leading by two lengths. Rounding the far turn Hildebrand let Ort Wells have his head and he steadily closed the gap that separated him from Delhi. Soon he was on even terms with the favorite and as the two swung into the stretch Ort Wells drew away and won easily by three lengths. Hildebrand rode former winners.

COURT MARTIAL

To Try Lieut. Hogan of the Marine Corps at Annapolis, Md.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, June 18.—Second Lieutenant Reginald R Hogan, U. S. M. C., stationed of Annapolis, is to be court-martialled for a recent escapade at Annapolis. According to a report made to the Navy Department, Lieut, Hogan, while returning to his quarters from an entertainment, with some other officers, about midnight, took a party of sailors to task for alleged failure to salute him properly on the street. When a negro who was passing said that the sailors hadn't done anything wrong, Lieut. Hogan knocked him down. He was arrested by the local police after a struggle.

Acting on these reports, the secretary of the navy has ordered a court-martial to convene at the naval academy, Annapolis, on Thursday next, for the trial of Lieut. Hogan on charges of disorderly conduct, intoxication and resisting arrest by the civil authorities.

The bark, which arrived later in the day, reported that she had her jib-boom and cat-head damaged.

MORE VICTIMS OF SLOCUM DISASTER.

So Far 581 Bodies Have Been Recovered and 325 Persons Are Still Recorded Missing.

A DIVER'S GRUESOME FIND.

Deep Hole in the Bed of the River Discovered Literally Packed With Dead. Funerals Yesterday—Coroner's Investigation Monday.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, June 18.—Unceasing search for over three days and nights has resulted to-night in the recovery of 581 bodies of victims of the awful disaster that befell the great excursion steamer General Slocum Wednesday. Although this appalling number does not represent the full extent of the calamity, hopes are expressed that comparatively few bodies remain to be recovered. There is a possibility that when the charred hulk is brought to the surface a considerable number of corpses may be found within the tangled mass of wreckage which has defied all the divers' attempts at complete exploration. Doubtless, too, many bodies have been swept away by the whirling currents of Hell Gate and carried out into the broad waters of Long Island sound, or out past Sandy Hook to the open sea.

The number still officially recorded to-night as missing is 325, but many of these have been accounted for, whose names have not been taken from the list, and others are among the dead whose identification is impossible.

The region in the vicinity of St. Mark's German Lutheran church in East Sixth street was to-day the scene of 114 funerals, representing the burial of nearly 200 bodies, almost all those of women and children.

Enormous crowds thronged the streets of the quarter and a large force of police was necessary to prevent disorder and keep clear a passage for the long lines of hearses and carriages. Funeral services were held in no less than thirty-seven churches of various denominations in this section.

Sixteen bodies, recovered during the day, were brought from the scene of the wreck to the temporary morgue at the foot of East Twenty-seventh street this afternoon. So great was the clamor for admission to the pier that all control of the crowd was lost and on the entrance to the pier being thrown open a rush took place, during which many persons were knocked down and trampled on.

Twenty-nine of the unidentified dead were buried to-day by the city in the Lutheran cemetery, leaving but eight bodies still awaiting identification in the morgue.

The executive committee of the mayor's relief committee met this afternoon at St. Mark's church and made arrangements for relief privately to all the needy sufferers by the disaster.

Mayor McClellan to-day authorized Police Commissioner McAdoo to contract with a wrecking company to raise the hull of the Slocum. A powerful tug was dispatched to North Brother island to-night with orders to raise the wreck as soon as possible and tow it to shallow water off Ricker's Island, where it will be searched for any bodies that may yet remain in it.

The investigation of the coroner will begin Monday morning and about 200 witnesses will be examined in the effort to fix the responsibility for the disaster.

A diver who to-day renewed the search for victims of the steamer General Slocum disaster, found a deep hole in the bed of the river practically filled with bodies. Within an hour after the search was begun to-night bodies had been brought to the surface and when he was forced to abandon work for a time because of the swift current, he stated that between thirty and fifty bodies still remained in the hole.

The diver was searching along the river bottom and had reached a point near the foot of the sloping lawn on North Brother Island where the bodies of the first victims of the tragedy were laid last Wednesday, when he found several bodies lying together, and at first the diver supposed there were not more than half a dozen in the pile. but upon removing several he found a great hole in the river bed literally packed with dead. He says that no less than thirty more bodies will be found when the tide again turns and permits a resumption of work. This number he says may be greatly exceeded. One of the bodies taken from the water to-day was that of a woman, wrapped or entangled in a large American flag.

General Daniel E. Sickles, a member of the board of aldermen, to-day sent a communication to President Roosevelt, in which he says:

"There is an impression here that the Federal officials charged with the duty of inspecting steamboats have been negligent and inefficient, and that they are gravely at fault in not having done what they might have done to avoid what has happened.

"Pray see that these steamboat inspectors shall be competent and trustworthy, and if further legislation is necessary to provide safeguards for the future ask, Congress to provide them."

The relief funds will have a large addition from the city treasury, a resolution for the issuance of $50,000 in bonds for the succor of the distressed victims of the accident having been introduced to-day; action being deferred because of the absence of the required number of aldermen to pass such a resolution.

JEFFRIES-MONROE MATCH

Postponed to the Last Week in August Next—$5,000 Guarantee.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., June 18.—The Jeffries-Munroe match has been postponed to the last week in August. Manager Coffroth, of the Yosemite Club, and Harry Pollock, manager for Munroe, were to-day at Hargin Springs, Jeffries' training place, and had an interview with the champion. Jeffries declared his ability and willingness to meet Munroe on June 30th, but Coffroth, after consulting with the surgeon who was in attendance, has decided that it would be the wiser course to allow the big pugilist more time to recover from his injury. Manager Pollock was agreeable to the long postponement, provided that he had some assurance that the match would be carried out. He stipulated that Jeffries should post $5,000 by next Monday night guaranteeing his appearance in the ring late in August. Jeffries agreed to post the $5,000.

During the night of June 16th two British torpedo boat destroyers collided off Porto Torres, Island of Sardinia. One of the destroyers sank. The crew was saved.

REPUBLICAN CLANS GATHERING IN CHICAGO.

Advance Guard of Delegations to the National Convention—Chief Interest Centres in Vice Presidency.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHICAGO, June 18.—The advance guard of the delegations to the Republican national convention has arrived in Chicago and a greater number of them are expected to come to-morrow and on Monday morning.

From all the advance indications the convention promises to lack something of the excitement of other gatherings of its kind. The chief interest so far centres in the vice presidential nomination.

The attitude of Senator Fairbanks regarding the nomination of vice president is not pleasing to many of the arriving delegates, who say that he should declare himself more explicitly. The great majority of the delegates who have so far arrived favor him, or are not actively opposed to him, but they desire a statement of some kind.

The members of the New York delegation, the majority of which arrived during this afternoon and evening, made it evident that the Empire State is not in favor of Senator Fairbanks for vice president. Elihu Root, who is to be the temporary chairman of the convention, was the first of the prominent New Yorkers to put in an appearance.

There is a strong "Hitt sentiment in New York," said Mr. Root, and we are of the opinion that he will make a strong candidate. The fact that Senator Fairbanks has expressed no wish for the place, has served to aid the candidacy of Mr. Hitt," Chauncey M. Depew, in discussing the vice presidential matter, said he favored Cannon.

COMBINATION OF RAILROADS.

Said to Embrace Rock Island-Frisco System, Seaboard Air Line, Pere Marquette and the C, H, & D.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

DETROIT, MICH., June 18.—The "Tribune" to-morrow will point to seven names of men belonging to the syndicate which recently purchased the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton railroad, as evidence of the gradual development of a combination, embracing the Rock Island-Frisco system, the Seaboard Air Line, the Pere Marquette and the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton.

The seven men are: Frederick H. Prince, president of the Pere Marquette; Eugene Zimmermann, vice president of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton; Henry Clay Pierce, director of the 'Frisco and of the Seaboard Air Line; F. W. Young, director of the Frisco; George H. Norman, chairman of the Pere Marquette; Thomas F. Ryan, director of the Pere Marquette, of the Seaboard Air Line and of the Hocking Valley, and Thomas H. West, director of the Pere Marquette.

The Tribune points out the vast territory reached by these roads which have become so closely affiliated, and says that while an actual merger would take much time, a mutual understanding and community of interests seem to have been consummated. The Rock Island already owns the 'Frisco and the Seaboard Air Line.

NAVAL ENGAGEMENT MAY BE EXPECTED.

Russian Fleets at Port Arthur and Vladivostok in Fighting Trim and Ready for Sea.

JAPANESE ATTACK DELAYED.

Important Land Engagement Imminent. The Battle of Vafangow—Russian Losses—Russian Barbarity in Sinking Transports.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

ST. PETERSBUG, June 18.—The authorities are decidedly elated over the simultaneous receipt of dispatches from Rear Admiral Wilhoft who commands the Russian fleet at Port Arthur and from Vladivostok indicating that the fleets at both places are in fighting trim. The condition of the squadron makes it apparent that the vessels are ready to go to sea, and if they meet the Japanese fleet the result will probably be a battle of iron-clads that will take a place in history overshadowing the meeting of the Chinese and Japanese fleets on the Yalu river. The Vladivostok message shows that the commandant there is looking forward to serious operations, probably in the way of reprisals for the destruction wrought by the Russian cruiser squadron. There is no indication, however, so far as can be learned, that the Japanese squadron has appeared in the neighborhood,

Land Battle Imminent.

LIAO YANG, June 18.—The retirement of the Russians before a superior force from Vafangow and the advance of the Japanese east and northeastward makes imminent a still more important engagement in the southern region. The Japanese have arrived at a point where the forces are more equal and where they must fight on more even terms. The loss of 2,000 men by the two Russian divisions at Vafangow shows the courage and ability of the officers and troops to retain their position under a percentage of loss almost unprecedented.

The Japanese attack on Port Arthur has been delayed.

The Battle of Vafangow.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 18.—About 1,100 men, wounded at the battle of Vafangow, including 55 officers, have reached Liao Yang. The total Russian losses are about 2,000.

General Stakelberg's force is marching north, the railroad being unable to transport more than a few thousand men.

Special dispatches say the Russians at Vafangow had 42 battalions against 44 Japanese battalions. The Japanese had great superiority in artillery, having more than 200 guns.

Vladivostok Squadron.

TOKIO, June 18, 4 P. M.—The Vladivostok squadron has disappeared off the coast of Aomori prefecture. The Russians recently searched two merchantmen and to one of them transferred the Englishmen taken from the Japanese transport Sado. They then permitted the vessels to depart uninjured.

Russian Barbarity.

TOKIO, June 18.—A total of 509 survivors of the Japanese transports Sado and Hitachi, destroyed by Russian warships, have arrived at southern ports.

The Russians permitted 610 non-combatants to leave the Sado, but their whereabouts are unknown. The Japanese officers and soldiers who were detained on board the Sado had prepared to commit suicide, but changed their minds when the Russians suddenly departed. There was apparently no chance given the non-combatants on board the Hitachi to leave and the Russians raked the crowded decks of the crippled transport with shrapnel. The Japanese denounce this action as barbarity, indicating the clear intent of the Russians to kill defenceless men instead of a simple desire to destroy the ships.

Russians Outgeneralled.

GENERAL KUROKI'S HEADQUARTERS, in the Field, via Fusan, June 18.—General Kuropatkin is assembling forces at Haicheng. A great battle is expected within a month.

The Russians again in their attempt to relieve Port Arthur were permitted to select their own battle ground and again they greatly misjudged the Japanese numbers and disposition of their forces and again were outgeneralled.

LIAO YANG, June 17.—(Delayed in transmission.)—Military activity on a grand scale is apparent at Mukden. A high authority confirms the announcement that Kuropatkin is assuming the offensive.

Situation at Port Arthur.

LIAO YANG, June 18.—According to trustworthy news from Port Arthur, there had not been a fresh attack by land or sea up to June 14th, though the Japanese had made a fourth unsuccessful attempt to block the entrance to the harbor, using four fireships, two of which were immediately sunk by shots from the batteries and the other two withdrawn.

The Russian fleet, according to these advices, is intact, and the spirits of the garrison and inhabitants are excellent. The soldiers are eager to fight and are confident of the impossibility of the taking of Port Arthur by the Japanese. Most of the inhabitants have enlisted in the volunteers, and six hundred women have offered their services. Perfect order is maintained and trade and industry are carried on as usual. Provisions are plentiful, there being a sufficient supply to last six months at full rations and a year at reduced rations. An enormous number of cattle, the advices say, were brought into Port Arthur a few days before the investment was completed, and meat now costs about thirteen cents a pound, beer is sold at 30 cents a bottle, and champagne at $4 a bottle. A band plays on the boulevard three times each week.

The Japanese outposts are eighteen miles from Port Arthur, beyond the station at Intchenze, two miles from the Russian outposts. Skirmishes occasionally occur.

Another Transport Sunk.

TOKIO, June 18.—In addition to sinking the Japanese transport Hitachi and shelling the Sado, the Russians sank the Idzumi, a transport homeward bound, carrying a few sick soldiers. Three boats from the Idzumi reached shore. The losses on the Idzumi are not known.

VLADIVOSTOK, June 18.—The commandant here has recommended to the inhabitants that they place their families in villages along the railroad as a measure of economy. It is announced that when Winter comes families having property but no children will be allowed to remain in Vladivostok, but that the families must be prepared to leave town at short notice.

MONGOLS AND KALMUCKS.

Revolt Against Russia Fostered by Japanese Likely to Give Trouble Along the Trans-Siberian Railroad.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

BIJSK, GOVERNMENT OF TOMSK, RUSSIA, June 18.—The agitation among the Mongols, inhabiting the Altai region is increasing over the alleged appearance of the God Airo', who they believe will deliver them from a foreign yoke and create an independent kingdom. The Mongols are gathering in thousands in answer to the summons of men who are proclaiming themselves to be the apostles of the God Airol. These men are inspiring awe among the ignorant nomads by means of an alleged miracle carried out with the aid of electrical and pyrotechnical devices. These so called apostles preach the recincarnation of the God Airol and pretend to carry from him messages to the people, saying that he has not been happy since he left them two hundred years ago, coincident with the date of the Russian occupation of the country. They warn the Mongols to abstain from wearing white or red clothing, these being Russian national colors, and to wear only blue and yellow, national colors of the Japanese, urge them to worship the sun and moon, which are the gods of Japan, and especially the overgod Burham, who is the only true god of the gods.

Reports from Irkutsk say that discontent among the Mongol and Kalmuck tribes is rife, owing to the preaching of the new prophets, who it is said have been discovered to be Japanese who have passed the Winter in caves in the mountain fastnesses. The seriousness of the situation lies in the fact that the tribes in which the revolt is fostered inhabit both sides of the Trans-Siberian railroad and number many thousands of potential fanatics, and that should any serious uprising occur it might interfere materially with railroad communication.

"JEFFING" FOR MONEY.

The Ancient Game Once Known to All Printers Is Being Forgotten.

"I lost $5 jeffing last night," said a printer. "What? You do not know anything about jeff? Why, it is as old as the art of printing itself, and no man knows just when it did come into favor. Far back in the past some fellow was impressed with the possibilities of the quad as an instrument for gambling. Since that time jeff has been a feature of all newspaper offices and wherever there is type to set. Jeff is played very much like dice, but is much more interesting, and the chances of winning a good stake at one shot are greater.

"Seven quads are used in the game. Any number of persons can play, and each throws the quads in turn, just as we do dice. You probably know that on one side of a quad is a little groove, which we call a 'nick.' The man who turns up the greatest number of nicks in three throws takes the pot, while every other man who puts up his money loses. Every player puts 50 cents into the pot, and, as there are six or seven to throw, the stake is well worth winning. When a throw is made without turning up a single nick, that's a 'mollie.' A 'mollie' is a blank and counts for nothing unless one can throw three 'mollies' in succession. In that case he takes the pot, but it is almost impossible to do the trick. 'Cocked' quads are also possible, as with dice. If three players tie their throws, they 'stay in,' while the remainder of the crowd 'sweeten up the pot.' It is seldom that more than five or six points are made, although I have heard of cases where players made as high as twenty points."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Anticipation.

There is a story to the effect that a woman with a disposition to worry over the future made a list of impending troubles, the ones she thought likely to happen to herself, and put it away for safe keeping. Some months later she ran across it by accident merely, for she had quite forgotten it, and to her surprise found that not one of the number had come to pass. So she became converted to the optimistic side and is a happier and more prosperous woman for the change.

It is a story we would do well to remember. It contains a lesson to be taken to heart. The greater part of our woe lives in our imagination. On that we waste our strength and nerve force, leaving a rather weak prop on which to lean in real adversity. Trouble we must meet—that is inevitable—but we do not have to live it through twice, the first time in imagination. A fear of what the future contains is a clog upon our heels and prevents the achievement of many an important deed.

Semiteetotal.

Archdeacon Sinclair told the Semiteetotal Pledge association of the diary of a Scotch shepherd, which read: "Sunday—Up in the morning at 6—a dram (whisky). Went out to see the sheep—a dram. Came home to breakfast—a dram. Looked round the house—a dram. Washed and dressed for church—a dram. Took a brandy before going to kirk lest I should smell of whisky in the house of the Lord!"

The name of the association was responsible for the archdeacon's own experience. He was once lunching alone in the house of a friend confined to his room by an accident. The housekeeper brought up a tray of good things and asked the archdeacon what he would have to drink, for, she said, "I've 'erd you're not a temperate gentleman."

Love.

Love is a great healer. The worst characteristic trait of a man and of a woman has been known to be cured by it.

It is Cupid who introduces you to Hymen, and a pity it is. How much better it would be if it were Hymen who introduced you to Cupid and invited the little fellow to remain your guest!

In the tender relations between men and women novelty is a wonderful attraction and habit a powerful bond, but between the two there is a bottomless precipice into which love often falls, never to be heard of afterward. Happy those who know how to bridge over the chasm!—Max O'Rell.

The Eloping Philosopher.

"We're going to miss getting a roomful of presents, George," said the dear girl as she eloped with the youth of her choice.

"Yes," he cheerfully replied, "and we're going to bear the loss with a good deal of philosophy, when we remember that we don't have to give a roomful of presents in return."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Both Sides of It.

She—It's lots of fun to flirt with a man till you get him to propose, and then say "No."

He—Yes. And it's lots of fun for the man, too, but he runs an awful risk.

She—How's that?

He—She might fool him and say "Yes."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

OUR ATMOSPHERE.

The Distance to Which It Extends Above the Earth's Surface.

One of the many uncertain elements in meteorology is the height to which the earth's atmosphere extends. In former days it was taught somewhat dogmatically that a height exceeding forty-five miles was unthinkable for a gas constituted as the air is. This belief was shaken by calculations respecting the altitude of meteors, which became incandescent by collision with our atmospheric envelope and were certainly rendered visible in this way at altitudes of ever seventy miles. Professor Newcomb deduced from the meteor shower of Nov. 13, 1867, that the air must reach to 100 or 110 miles from the earth's surface. Dr. T. J. See of Washington essayed to determine the problem by watching the disappearance of blue sky after sunset. Accepting Lord Rayleigh's theory that the blue color of the sky is due to reflection of sunlight from minute particles of oxygen and nitrogen in the upper layers of the atmosphere, Dr. See on a series of evenings traced with the eye "the last footsteps of departing day" by the evanishment of the final trace of blue in the firmament. He then computed from the data of the Nautical Almanac the position of the sun at the time, and a simple calculation in spherical trigonometry gave the approximate height of the reflecting layer. The mean of several observations is 131 miles.

Salt and Ice.

Does salt melt ice? In this question there is but a half truth suggested, since salt no more melts ice than ice melts salt. Heat is the main agent whereby a body passes from a solid to a liquid state. It has been well known, however, for centuries that certain solid bodies when brought together (as here, salt and ice) have such a chemical affinity for one another—i. e., their tendency to combine and melt is so great—that heat is drawn from all surrounding sources as well as from the store latent in these substances themselves.

When this is the case they become chilled and make a freezing mixture, the temperature dropping till the heat drawn from the two sources—external and internal—is sufficient to keep pace with the rate of melting.

Fahrenheit in 1762 made use of this very melting mixture when he secured what he thought was absolute cold, thereby marking the freezing point on his thermometer at 32 degrees.—Answers.

A Crater Lake.

Deep in the summit of the Cascade range, in the state of Oregon, some sixty-five miles north of the California line, lies Crater lake. The United States government, recognizing its worth as an educational feature, wisely secured possession of it and made a national park of the locality. An area of 250 square miles is thus protected.

The surface of Crater lake is rather more than 6,200 feet above sea level. It is an oval basin between twenty and twenty-one square miles in area, surrounded by cliffs which range from more than 500 to nearly 2,000 feet in height, the ground falling more gradually from their rim to the present upland level. This great sheet of blue water, in places almost 2,000 feet deep, is interrupted near its western margin by a pyramidal rocky mass, called Wizard island, itself evidently a volcanic vent.—Philadelphia Record.

Bullock Skin Boats.

There are few more primitive methods of transportation than those in use today by natives of northern India who make their homes in the vicinity of the swift flowing Sutlej. The boats of these aborigines are nothing more or less than bullock skins inflated by the breath of the natives themselves. Two natives may be seen hard at work filling the skins with air. Having inflated them to their satisfaction, they will leap aboard and paddle themselves across the river, great skill and strength being necessary to sustain their equilibrium during the passage. But even should the boats overturn they are easily righted, and the natives are without exception expert swimmers.
